

MOISSAC GROUPS DISCOVERY

The medieval abbey, a world in colors

From the floor to the ceiling and even in the books... colors are everywhere during the Middle-Ages. Think about the work of the illuminator monks and their pigment manufacturing techniques. Imagine an abbey where the floors are covered with colored pavements.

Accompanied by the certified guide, walk from the cloister to the abbey's hospice to talk about the latest archeological discoveries and discover the chapel with Romanesque frescoes, unusually open.
